Mrs. George Hasse

Mrs. George J. Hasse, 89, a former resident of Groton, and a Brown County pioneer, died unexpectedly in her home in Aberdeen at 11:00 a. m., Sunday.

Services were held at 2:30 p. m., last Tuesday in the Huebner Chapel with the Rev. Clarence Schaefer officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery.

Alvina F. Merten was born October 22, 1866, at Lomira, Wis. When 15 she came to the Aberdeen vicinity to keep house for her brothers. In 1886 her parents came west and settled on a farm three miles southeast of Aberdeen.

She married George J. Hasse in Aberdeen, Oct. 22, 1895. They lived on a farm near Warner until 1944 when they retired and moved to Aberdeen. In 1946 they moved to Groton and they lived there until Mr. Hasse died in 1950. At that time she returned to Aberdeen.

Mrs. Hasse was a member of the Evangelical United Brethren church and until recent years was active in the church, the Ladies Union and Missionary Society and taught a Sunday school class.

Survivors include two sons, Royal of Aberdeen, and Merten of Vermillion and Aberdeen; seven grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Her husband, a son, two sisters, three brothers and a grandson preceded her in death.
